The St Mary’s students joined the NAIDOC Walk through town to celebrate Aboriginal culture, language, tradition and land rights. We saw family walking and talking. I spoke to them and waved to them. It felt good because I got to walk with my family. I felt proud (Jobe).
I felt proud to walk in the march because I felt surrounded by my family (Indi).
I felt proud to walk because I was walking on Yawaru country and seeing all the people smiling (Kyle).
I enjoyed watching the little Yawaru kids dance their traditional dance (Shenniqua).
It is important to celebrate NAIDOC Week to acknowledge and learn about different cultures.
I liked hearing the songs and eating the damper (Hayley).
It was interesting to see all the schools come together and see all the Aboriginal organisations from health, law, music, land, sea and education (Hayley). The police car looked amazing as it had dot painting on it. It was great to see this car because it looked friendly (Tenille).
